

Practice Placement 2

5 Credits, Level 9

Aim of Module	To consolidate the teaching skills, competences and dispositions developed in Teaching Practice 1 and to provide an opportunity to apply developing pedagogical knowledge to practice in the classroom.
Module Learning Outcomes	<ul style="list-style-type: none">• Analyse the relevance and potential applicability of a range of methodologies to his / her particular subject area.• Develop and utilise a variety of available curricula and emerging technological and multi-media resources to enhance and enrich the adult and FE learning environment and community of practice.• Reflect critically on learner's backgrounds, identities, experiences and learning modes with a view to applying the knowledge acquired through such reflection to his / her teaching.• Critically evaluate and apply a range of strategies to support and monitor student learning and to provide feedback on that learning.• Select and apply appropriate group management and organisation skills to cater for a range of situations in the adult and FE context• Demonstrate an ability to actively promote the interdependence of his / her own learning and that of the students s/he teaches.• Illustrate the application of professional values to his / her professional practice.
Mode of Assessment	100% Continuous Assessment.
Course Leader	Dr Carol O'Byrne